

The THEORY OF MIND TASK BATTERY

Tiffany L. Hutchins & Patricia A. Prelock

©2014

Point to the face that is happy.
Point to the face that is sad.

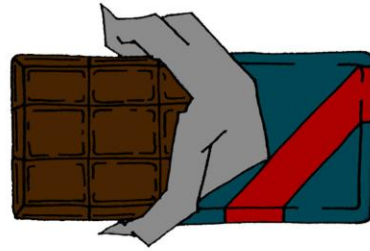

Point to the face that is mad.
Point to the face that is scared.

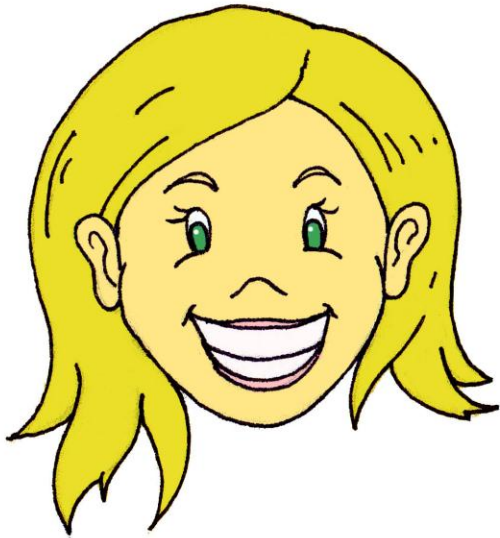

This is Brynn.

Brynn wants a cookie to eat.

What does Brynn want?

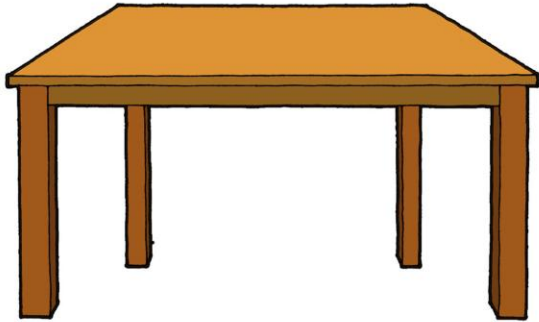

How will Brynn feel if she gets a cookie?

This is Patty. This morning Patty saw her glasses on the table. Now she wants her glasses.

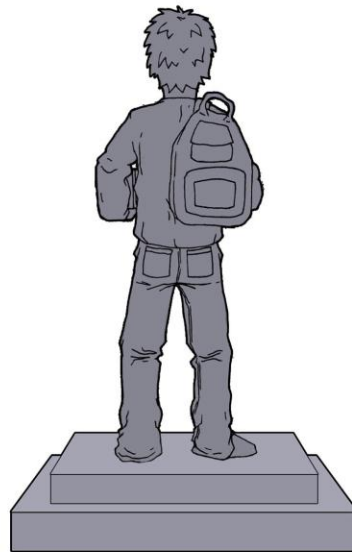

Where does Patty think her glasses are?

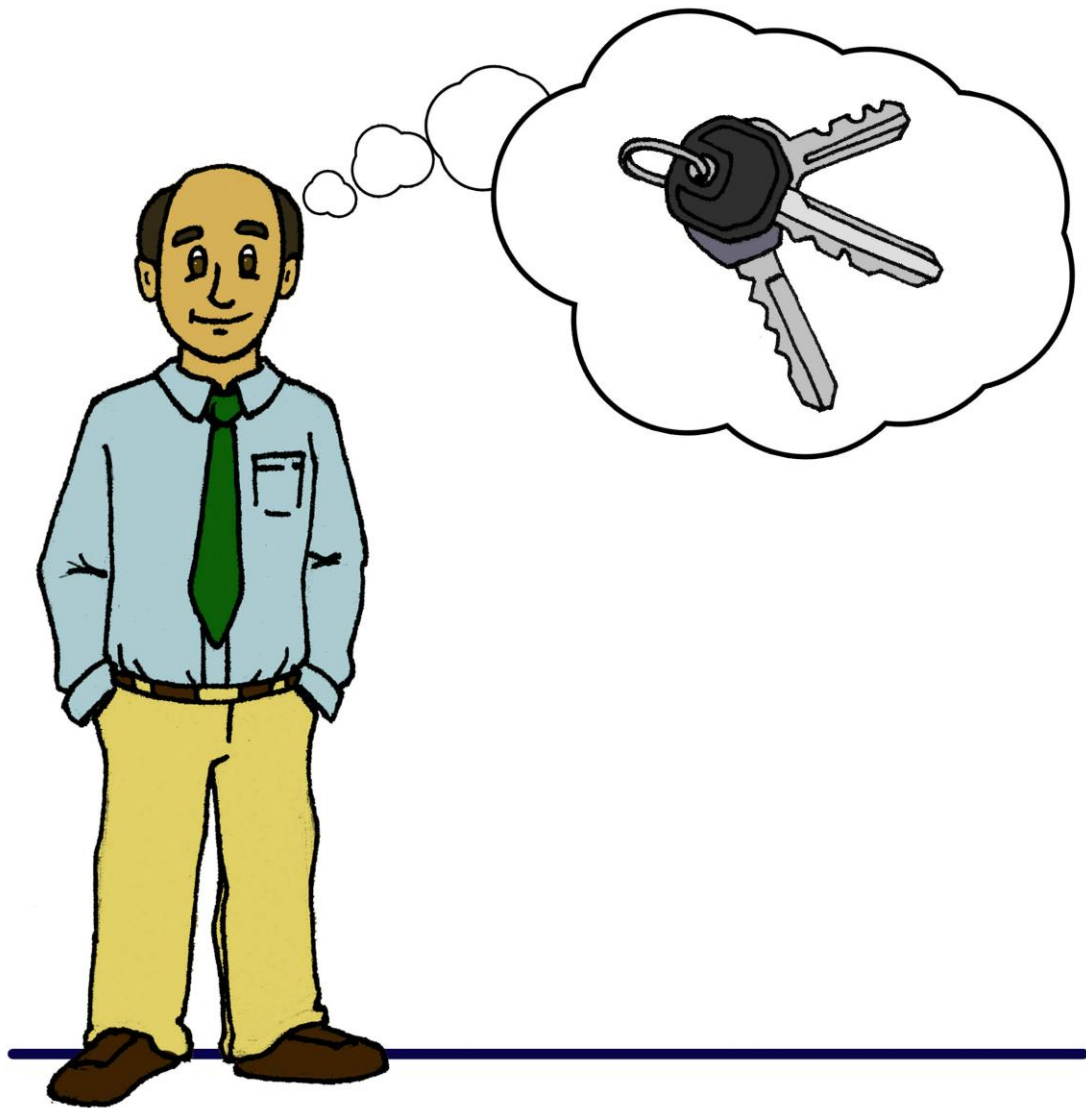

Jasmine is at the park.
Vince is also at the park.
Jasmine and Vince are looking at a statue.

When Jasmine looks at the statue,
what does she see?

When Vince looks at the statue,
what does he see?

This is Franklin.
Franklin wants his keys.

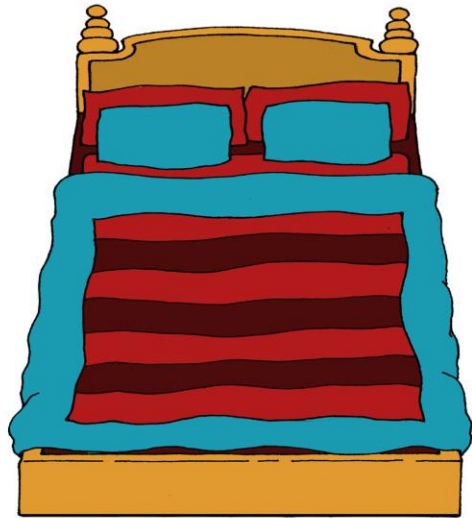

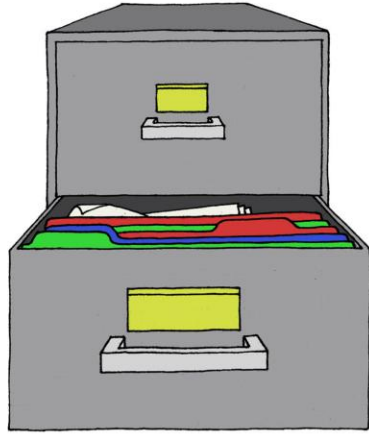

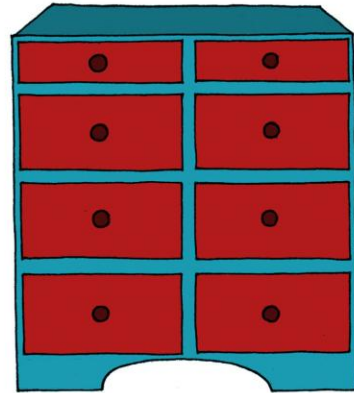

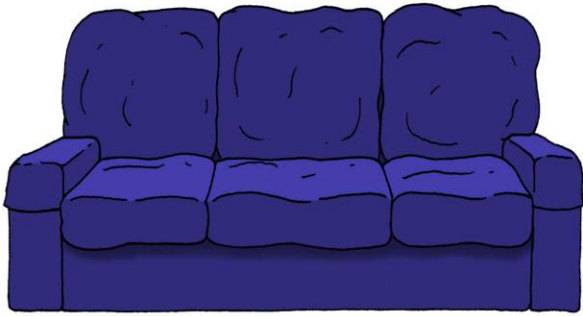

Franklin has two sets of keys that are exactly the same. One set of keys is on the couch and the other set of keys is on the bed.

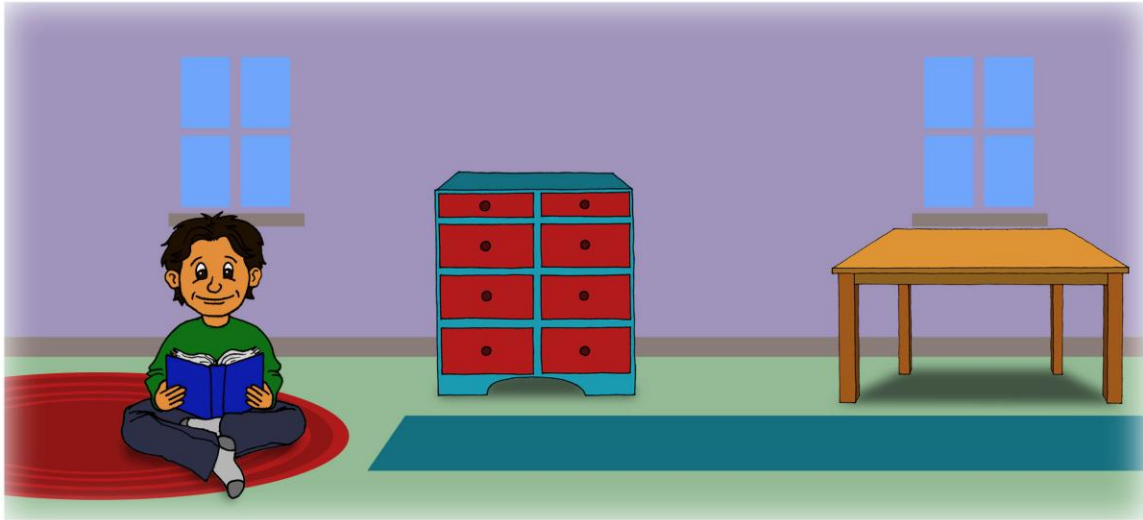

Today Franklin saw the keys on the couch. Franklin did not see the keys on the bed.

Where will Franklin go to get the keys?

This is Anthony. Anthony is reading a book.

When he is done, Anthony puts the book on the table.

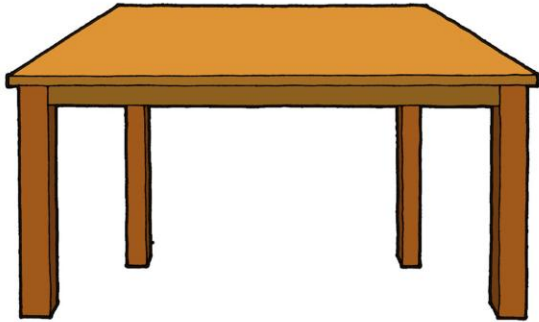

Look, Sonya comes in and moves the book from the table to a drawer.

Then Sonya leaves.

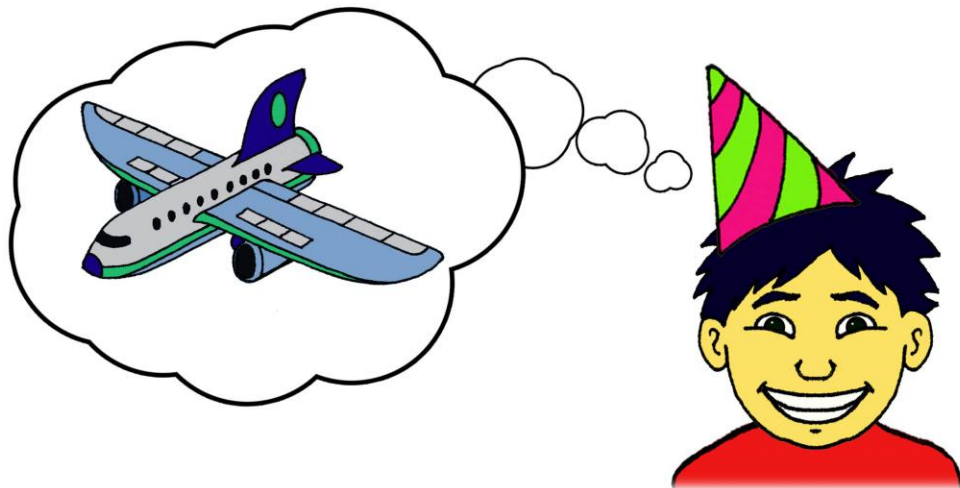

Look, Anthony comes back to read some more.

Where did Anthony put the book?
Where is the book now?
Where will Anthony look for the book first?

This is Lee.
It is Lee's birthday.

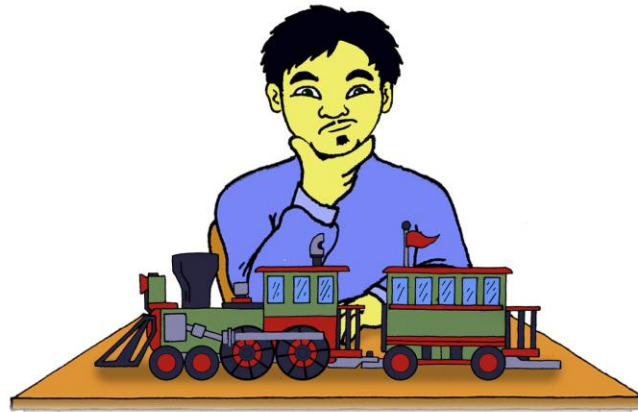

Lee wants a toy airplane for his birthday.

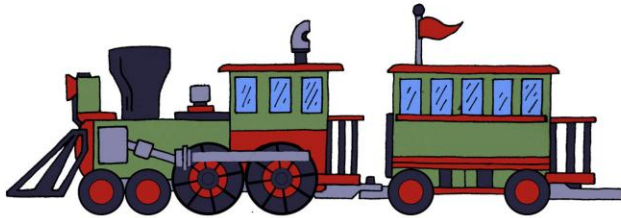

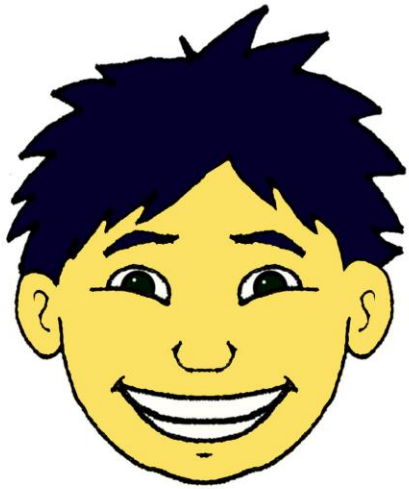

Dad thinks Lee wants a train for his birthday.

Dad got a train for Lee.
Lee doesn't know about the train.
Lee thinks his Dad got him an airplane.

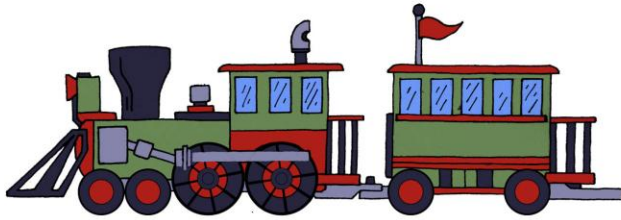

What does Lee want?
What does Lee think his Dad got him?

If Lee thinks his Dad got him an airplane, how will Lee feel?

Look, Dad gives Lee the train.

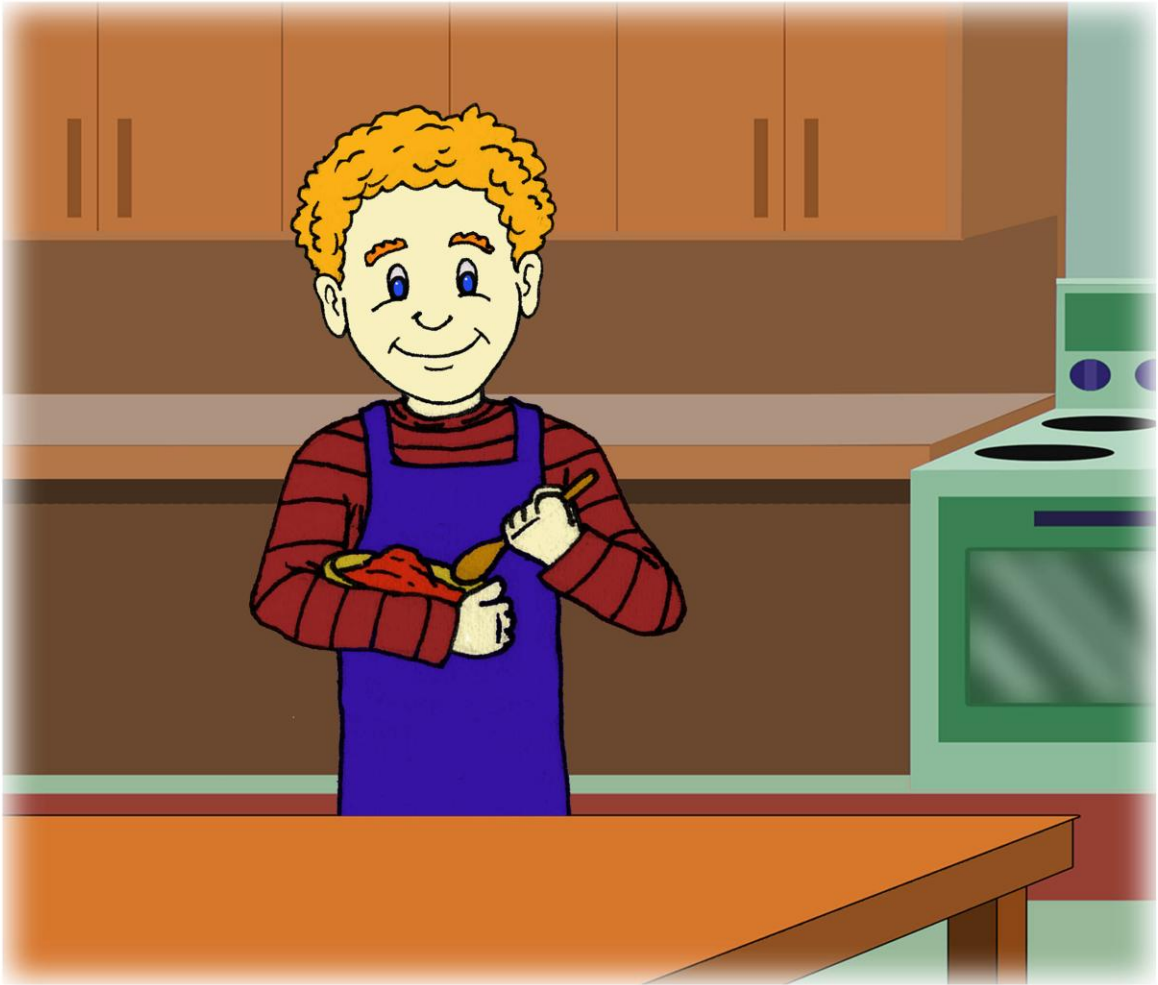

What does Dad think Lee wants?

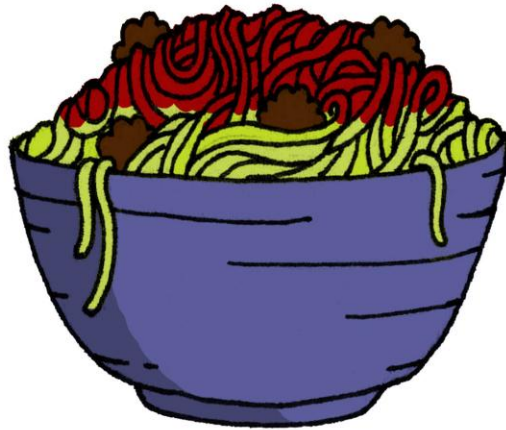

How will Lee feel when his Dad gives him the train?

When Dad gives Lee the train, how does Dad think Lee will feel?

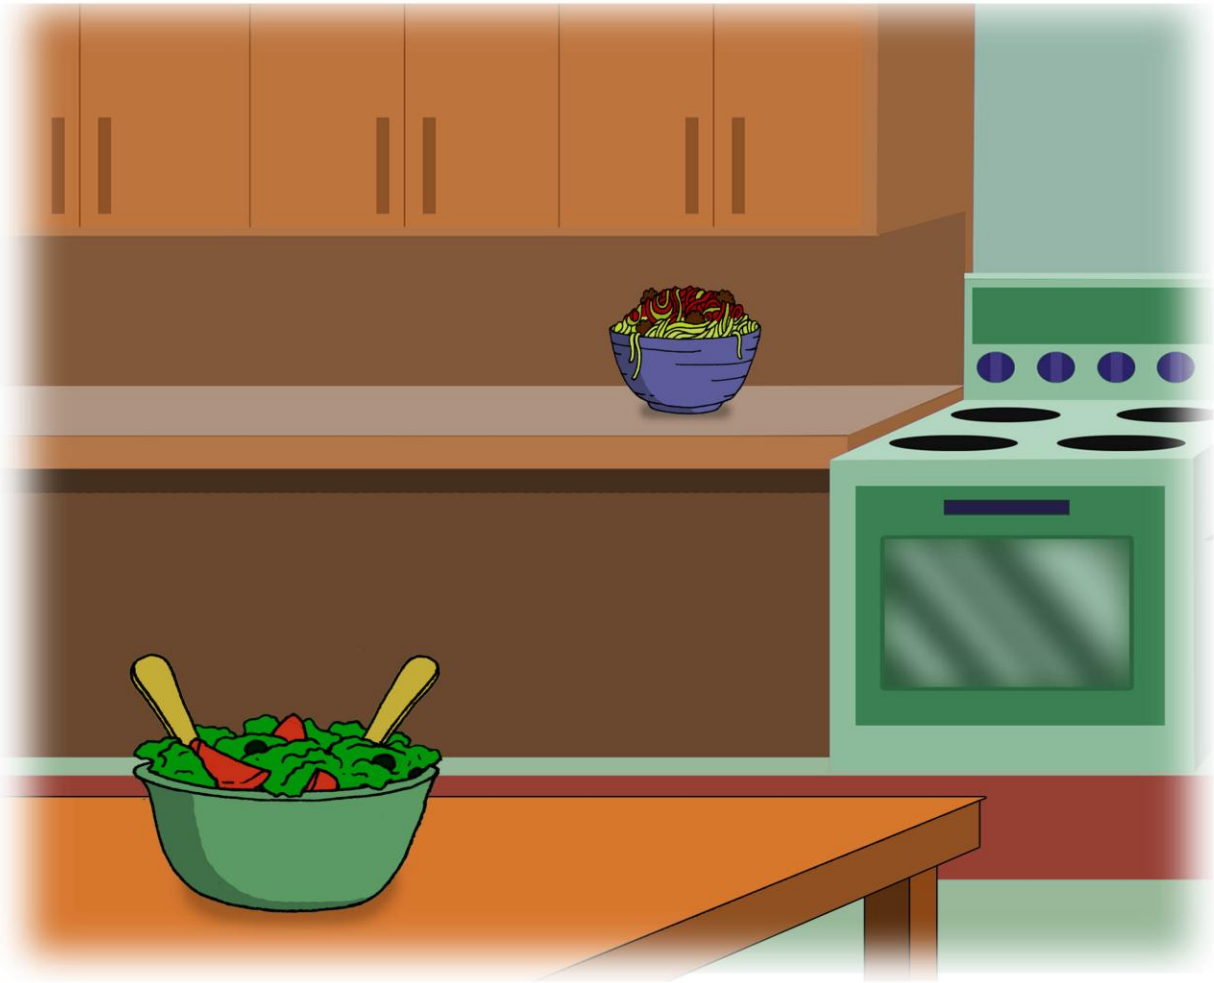

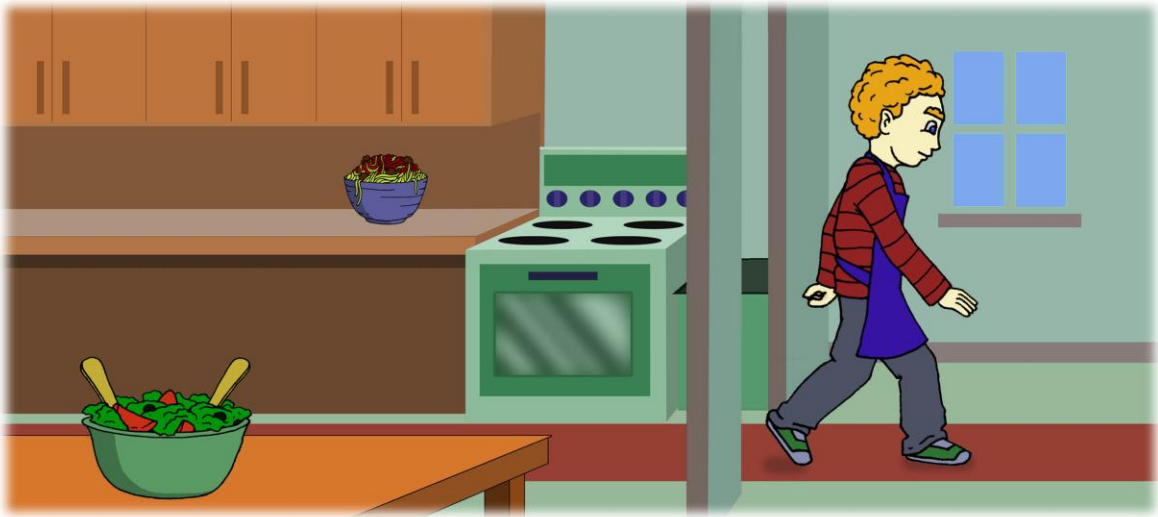

This is Russ.
Russ is cooking dinner.

He made spaghetti and a salad.
He puts the spaghetti in one bowl and the salad in another bowl.

Russ puts the bowl of spaghetti on the counter and the bowl of salad on the dinner table.

Look, Russ leaves the kitchen

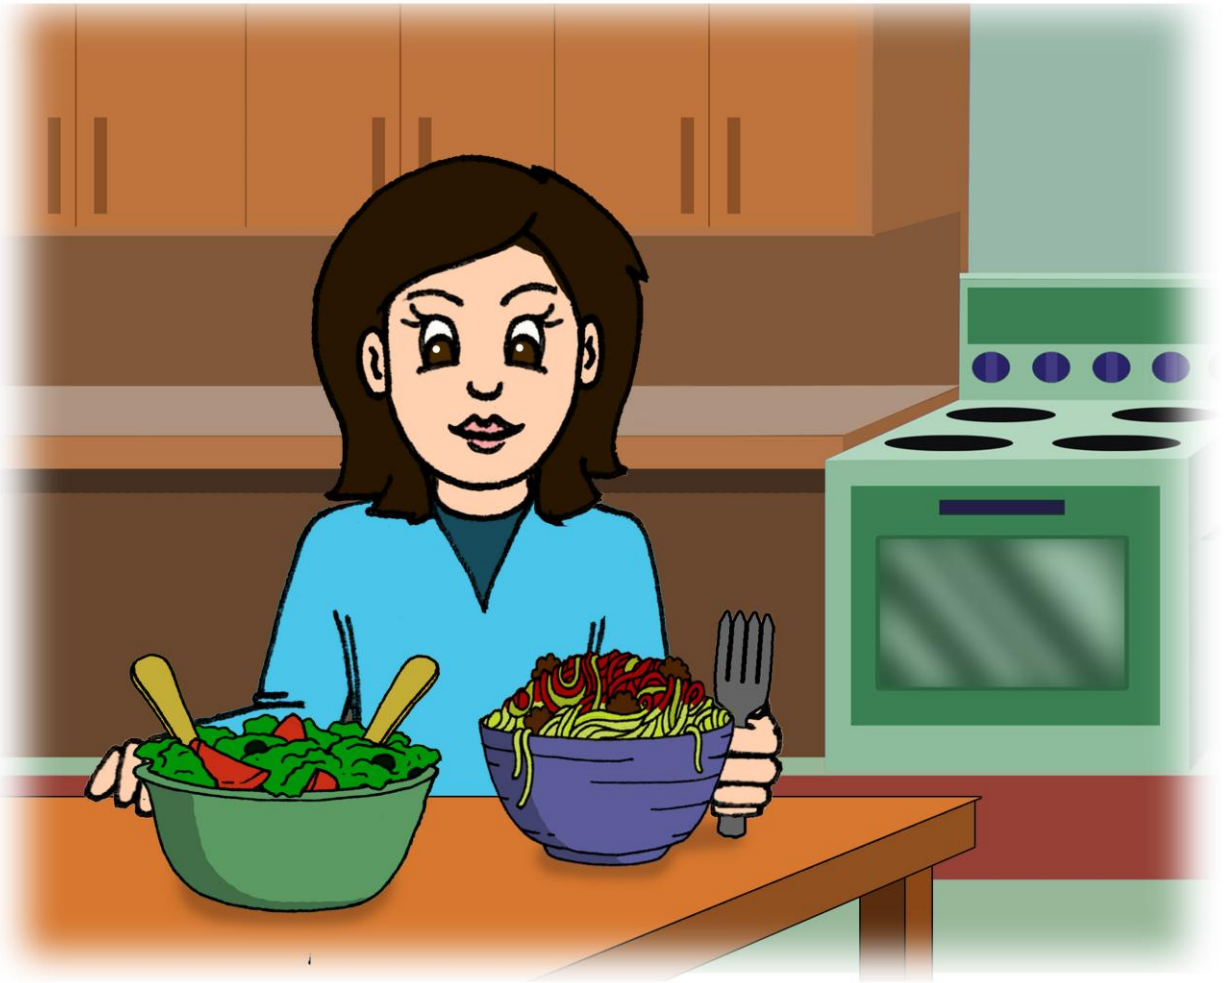

He goes into the living room to read the paper.

Which bowl did Russ put on the counter?

Which bowl did Russ put on the dinner table?

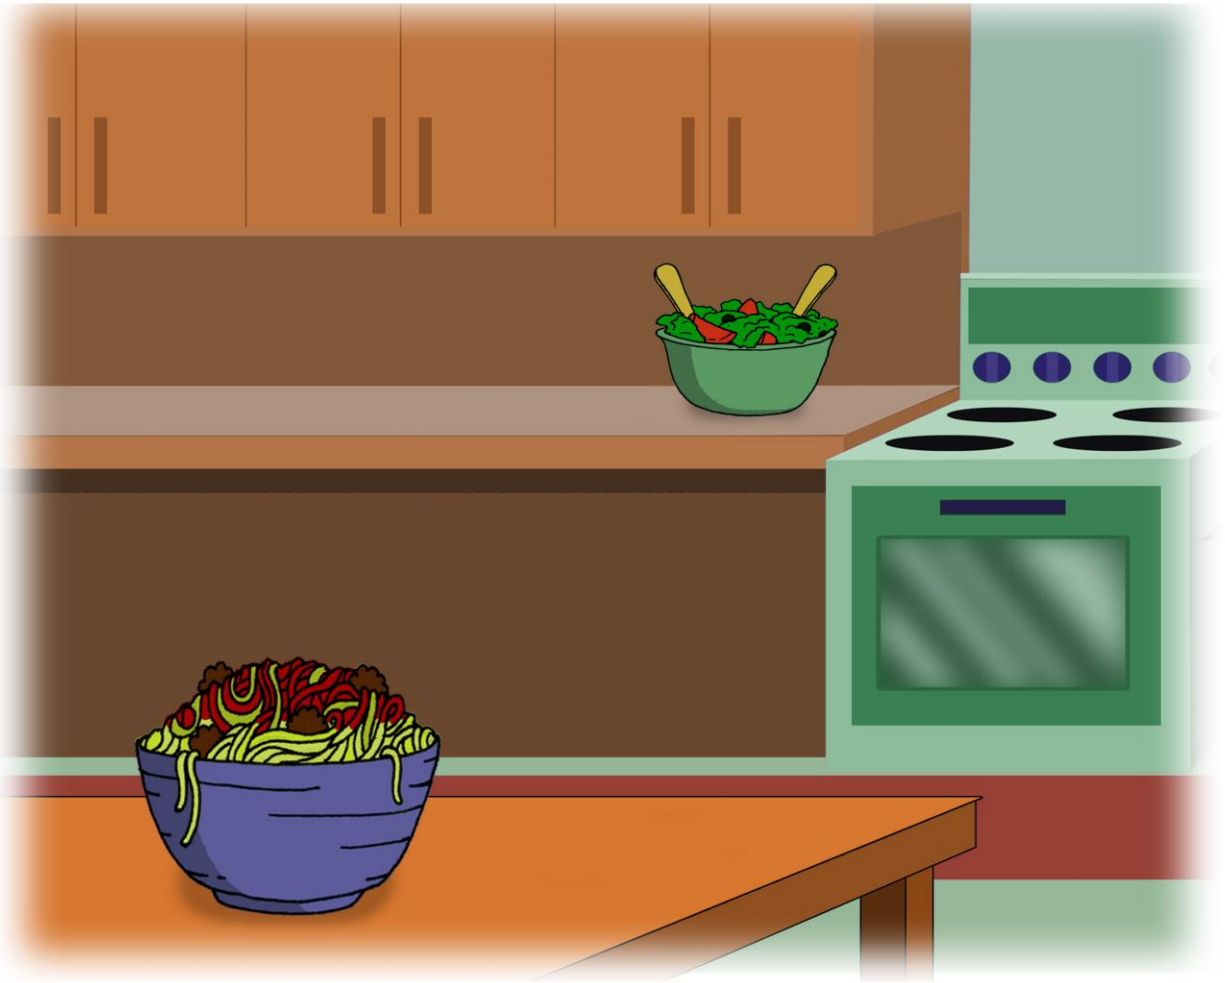

This is Mariam.

Mariam came into the kitchen.

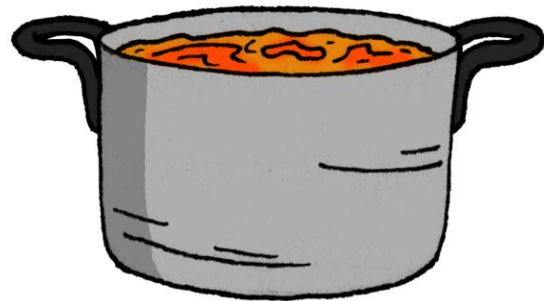

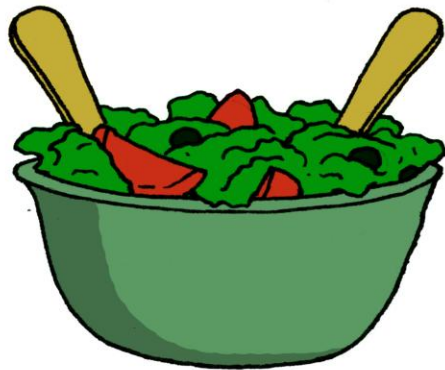

She takes the bowl from the counter and the bowl from the table and has something to eat.

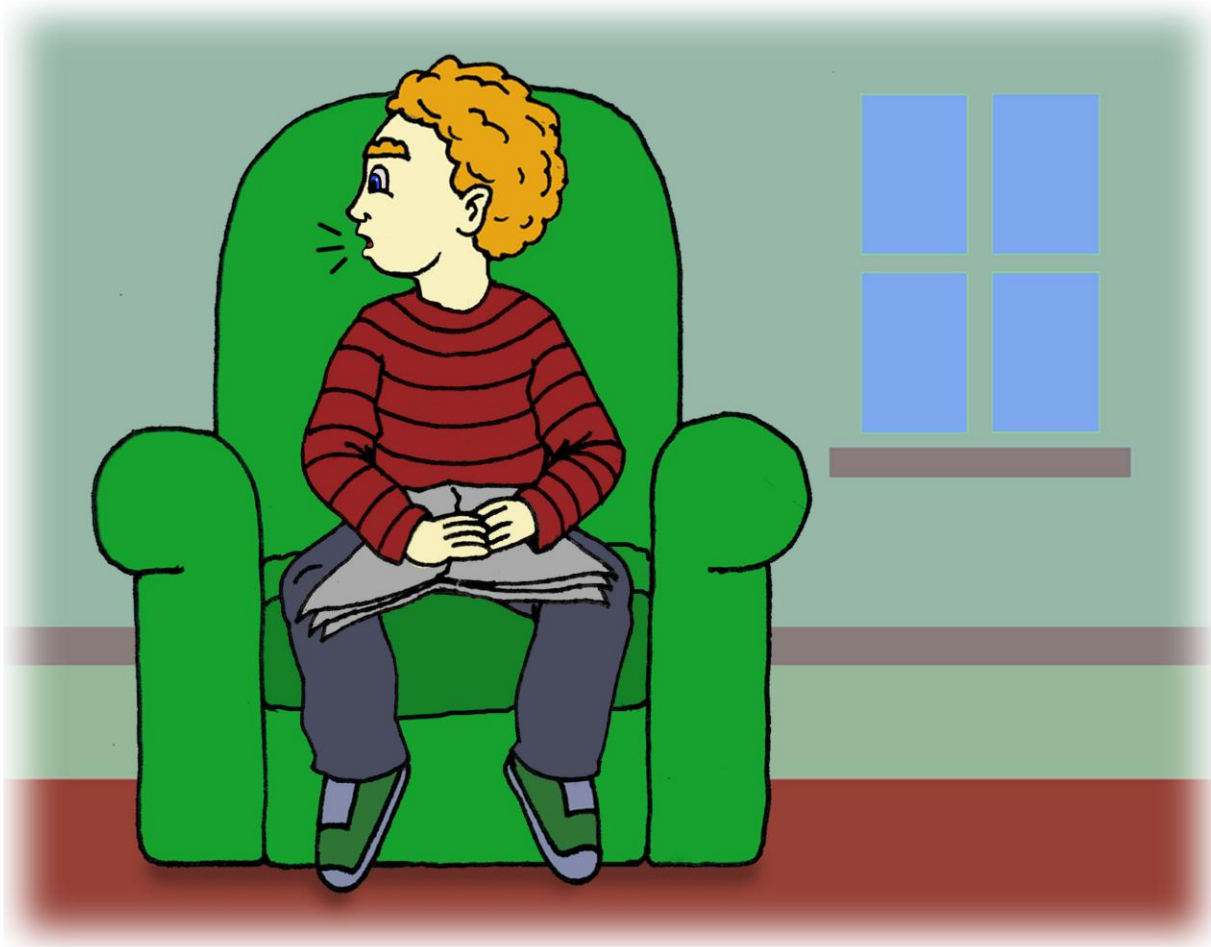

When Mariam is finished, she puts the bowls back but she gets the bowls mixed up.

She puts the bowl of salad on the counter and the bowl of spaghetti on the dinner table.

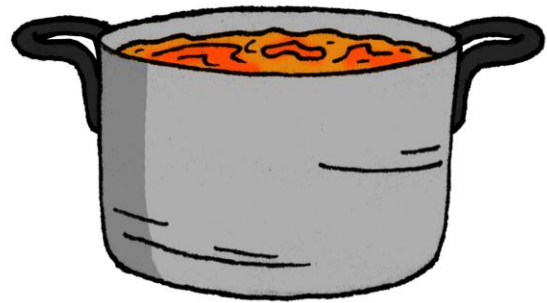

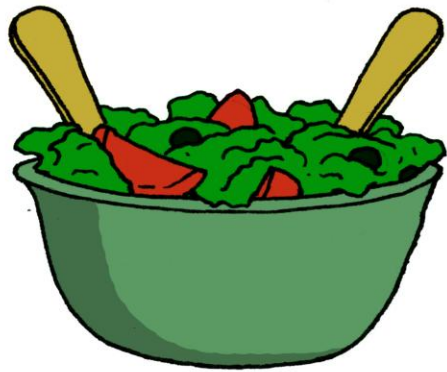

Which bowl did Mariam put on the counter?

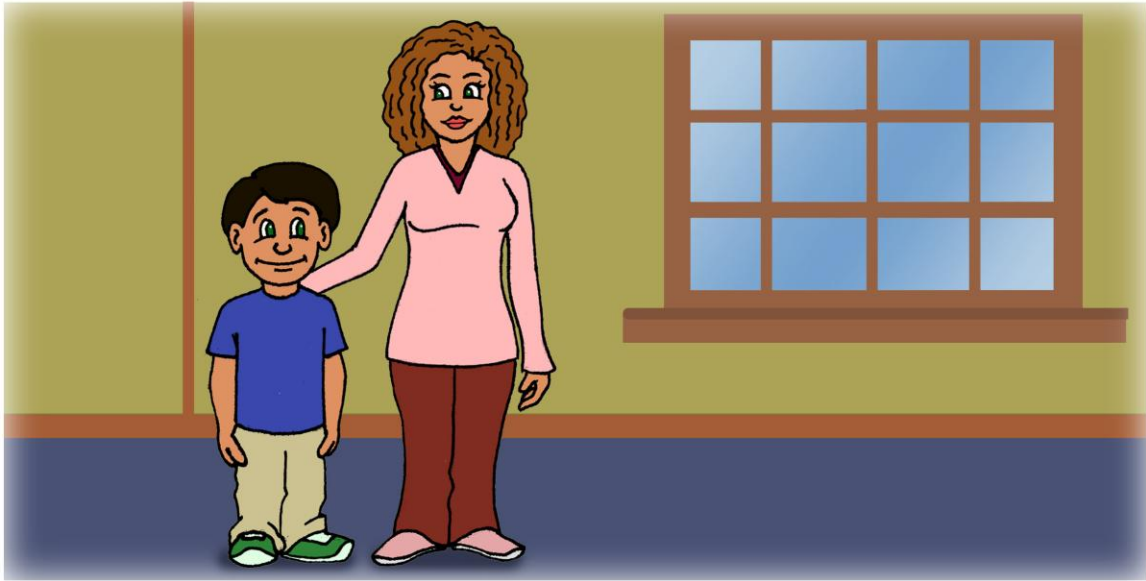

Which bowl did Mariam put on the dinner table?

Later, Russ decides to have something to eat. He asks Mariam to bring him the bowl that is on the counter.

Which bowl does Russ really want?

This is Enrique and his Mom.

It is Enrique's birthday.
He is having a big party tonight.

Enrique's Mom is surprising him with a new bike. Mom has hidden the bike in the closet.

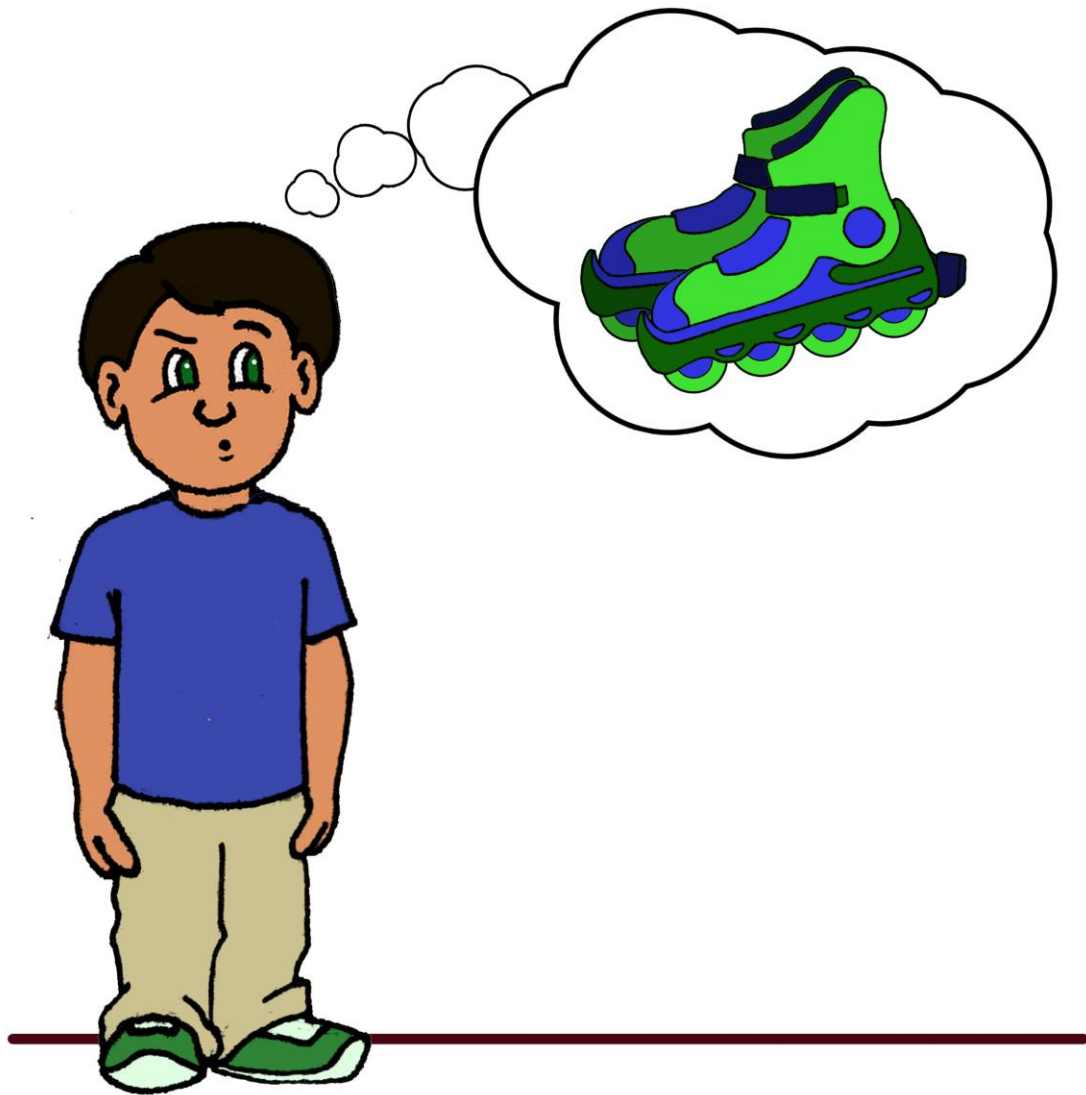

Enrique and his Mom are talking in the kitchen.

Enrique says, “Mom, I really want a new bike for my birthday.”

Now remember, Mom wants the bike to be a surprise so she says, “Sorry, I didn’t get you that. I got you roller blades instead.”

Enrique thinks his Mom got him new rollerblades.

Then Enrique waves goodbye to his Mom.

Enrique says, “Okay. I am going to my friend’s house. I’ll be home later.”

On his way out, Enrique opens the closet door to get a jacket and sees his new bike.

Enrique is happy.

He thinks to himself, “Yes! Mom did not get me roller blades. She really got me a new bike!”

Mom does not see Enrique open the closet.

Mom doesn't know that Enrique found the bike.

What does Enrique think he is getting for his Birthday?

Later, Enrique's Grandfather comes over for his birthday. Grandfather asks Mom, "Does Enrique know what he is getting for his birthday?"

What does Mom tell Grandfather?
Does she tell him that Enrique thinks he is getting rollerblades, a bike, a basketball, or a baseball glove?